The deceased Ramaswami Naik's Sister is married to Narasimhaswami Naik who with his brother Gopal Krishnaswami Naik & Krishnajammani are getting a Separate pension of Rs 153-10-4 in the Manjarabad family & that therefore the deceased's pension of Rs 18-15-9 should revert to the daughters of the said Narasimhaswami Naik & her daughter's daughter, in the event of the pension lapsing to Govt. under revertionary right.

The 2nd & 3rd petitioners do not belong to this branch of the family.

6. The 3rd petitioner - Krishnajammani says that the deceased had no right to arrange for an adoption & that such adoption is quite contrary to G.O. No 1678x of 1877 & the pension enjoyed by the deceased may be registered in the name of ~~his~~ deceased's mother - Ammaniamma (No 6) and after her demise it may be reverted to the Head family members as has been done hitherto.

It is not contrary to the rules as the choice of the boy for adoption was confined to the same branch of the family - The reference is put up in another case

7. The 4th petitioner - Akkammani the sister of the deceased (~~Sl.~~ No 8) objects to the adoption & prays that the pension may be registered in ~~the~~ her name ~~of Akkammani~~ who will undertake to protect her mother Ammaniamma (the deceased's mother).

8 The Vizagm. Treasury Officer in submitting these petitions, states that the so called adoption of Lakshmana Razu (no 11) cannot be recognized, as no previous sanction of Govt. was obtained; but the petitioner has given reasons for not reporting the same to Govt in her petition d/ the 19-XI-10.

9 As regards the other petitioners, ~~the~~ he states that they are not worth investigating now during the lifetime of the mother of the deceased Pallegar and recommends that the pension of Rs 18-15-9 enjoyed by late Ramaswami Naik may be registered in the name of his mother - Ammaniamma - who is the only heir.

10 In her letter d/ 14-2-11 Ammaniamma mother of the deceased pensioner states that the adoption has not yet taken place and that she would obtain Govt. sanction and then adopt. The adoption seems to be beset with difficulties. The deceased pensioner being a ~~bachelor~~ unmarried at the time of his death it is doubtful if he could ~~adopt~~ have adopted, The mother cannot now adopt for her son

SM File No. 272 of 1910

She could not adopt for her husband also as the boy is stated to have ~~started~~ performed her son's funeral ceremonies. Under these circumstances it is best to give the pension to the mother of the deceased pensioner - Ammaniamma.

19/4/14

11 It is now a settled fact [illegible] that even an unmarried man can adopt but that question does not arise here as adoption can be valid for our purpose only when recognised by Govt. We may hold that as the adoption has not been recognised that there has been no adoption and instead of reverting the pension to the mother it is for consideration whether it could not be considered as lapsed - the mother being given some small percentage of it for life

In her Statement before the Deputy Amuldar, Alur, this lady states that one Lakshmana Raju her grandson by a daughter was selected to be adopted and performed the funeral obsequies of the deceased.

This so called adoption not having been supported by Government Sanction previously obtained, cannot now be recognized

The claims of the other Petitioners are not worth investigating now during the lifetime of the mother of the deceased Pollegar.

I am therefore to recommend that the pension of the deceased Pollegar may be transferred to his mother and only heir.

I have the honor to be
Sir
Your most obedient Servant
